“BRING YOUR A GAME TO WORK”

Great Falls, MT—Great Falls Public Schools Adult Education and Great Falls College MSU are hosting Bring Your “A” Game to Work, an educational presentation, February 16 and half day training, February 17, 2016.

The engaging session on February 16 will expound on the seven core behaviors of work ethic; Attendance, Appearance, Attitude, Ambition, Acceptance, Accountability and Appreciation. Participants will discover actionable tactics they can use to develop the foundation of organizational success. Work ethic is a trainable set of behaviors that are key to workplace performance. The interactive Train-the-Trainer session on February 17, will prepare teachers, trainers, and facilitators to apply Bring Your “A” Game to Work within their organizations and showcase simple training and leadership approaches that yield lasting results.

Great Falls Public Schools Adult Education and Great Falls College MSU have invited Josh Davies, the CEO of The Center for Work Ethic Development to discuss the seven (7) essential work ethic behaviors that are prerequisites for success in any field, any job, and any industry. At the completion of the training on Wednesday, participants will earn The Center for Work Ethic Development’s Certified Work Ethic Trainer Credential.

The Center for Work Ethic Development is the nation’s only institution focusing on the research and advancement of work ethic. They partner with more than 550 organizations around the globe, impacting hundreds of communities, and thousands of individuals. Josh Davies is passionate about helping others make a difference in their lives, jobs, and community. Through his work as a speaker, trainer, and executive, he has produced results around the country. He has delivered keynote presentations and workshop trainings to a wide variety of organizations across all 50 states. Training Magazine recently named him as one of the top 10 trainers under 40 in America and the Denver Business Journal tapped him as one of Denver’s 40 under 40.

*Great Falls Adult Education’s mission is to assist individuals on their Path to HiSET, Path to Higher Education or Path to Employment by creating choices, improving chances, and motivating changes.

*The mission of Great Falls College MSU is to educate and inspire you.

The free presentation will take place Tuesday, February 16, from 4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. The half day training ($25 per person) will be held Wednesday, February 17, from 8:00 a.m. to noon. Both will take place in Heritage Hall at Great Falls College MSU (registration is required).
