Healthy Native Hearts Luncheon

What: The Great Falls Public Schools (GFPS) Foundation is sponsoring the Healthy Native Hearts luncheon. This event is organized by the GFPS Indian Education Department and includes Native American students and women in their families. There will be health-related booths set up from 11:00-1:45 for the students and guests to peruse. Lunch will be served at 12:00. PGEC culinary students will be preparing and serving the meal.

Adrianna Medicine Horse, Olivia Flamand and Jordann Lankford will speak. Adrianna is a senior at Paris Gibson Education Center and an enrolled member of the Crow tribe. Olivia is a senior at CMR High School and a member of student government and the Wranglers.

Jordann Lankford graduated from Great Falls Public Schools in 2006. She attended the University of Montana and double majored in History Education and Native American Studies. Ms. Lankford served as the American Indian Academic Achievement coach for CMR and Paris last year. Currently, she is working at the Montana Office of Public Instruction promoting Superintendent Denise Juneau's Graduation Matters initiative.

There will also be a drawing for prizes and an InterTRIBAL Strong activity.
