

1 6420 ADMINISTRATION

2 Professional Growth and Development

3 The Board recognizes that training and study for administrators contribute to skill development 4 necessary to better serve the needs of the District. Each year the Superintendent or designee should 5 develop an administrative in-service program based upon the needs of the District, as well as the needs 6 of individual administrators.

7 Administrative staff are encouraged to be members of and participate in professional associations which 8 have as their purposes the upgrading of school administration and the continued improvement of 9 education in general.
